

Business Club Meetings presented by Illinois workNet

February Meeting: The Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC)

An Employer-Friendly Benefit for Hiring Job Seekers Most in Need of Employment, featuring speaker Fernando Chavarria, IDES Community Relations Manager. Learn how to reduce your cost-of-business with this tax credit program.

February 1st 7:45 a.m. Networking & Registration
8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m. Program

March Meeting: Employee or Independent Contractor?

Learn the differences between what classifies a worker as an employee or an independent contractor. Today's program featuring speaker Chuck Krugel, Human Resources Attorney & Counselor Labor & Law on Behalf of Management, discusses how your company can avoid simple mistakes which could result in significant problems.

March 1st 7:45 a.m. Networking & Registration
8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m. Program

Illinois workNet/Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES).

Doors open at 7:45 a.m. for registration & networking.

Program 8 a.m. – 9 a.m.

Illinois workNet Center - Arlington Heights
723 Algonquin Road, Arlington Heights, IL 60005

Register online <http://ah.worknetncc.com/default.asp?contentID=155>

For information contact Mohammed Faheem at 847.437.9425 or mfaheem@worknetncc.com

